ENTHUSIASTIC ANTI-ANNEXATION MEETING

DELEGATIONS FROM SAWTELLE, CULVER CITY, VENICE AND WEST SAN PEDRO COME TO WARN GLENDALE NOT TO SURRENDER HER MUNICIPAL IDENTITY

ORGANIZATION FORMED TO FIGHT BEING SWALLOWED BY BIG CITY

The response to the call for a meeting of Glendale citizens to form an organization to oppose the annexation of this city to Los Angeles was a large one considering the heat of the evening and the fact that so great a proportion of the population is away on vacation trips. Men were decidedly in the majority although some prominent women were present to represent absent sons or husbands or to reinforce the husbands who were with them.

Delegations from Annexed Territory

Besides the Glendale citizens present there were delegations from Culver City, Sawtelle, Venice and West San Pedro.

From Sawtelle came E. W. Mecum, H. C. Head, J. P. Varney, Charles Coe, A. R. Guffin, Mrs. Guffin, and William Misner.

From West San Pedro came Judge Savage, Mr. Buchanan and John A. Betten.

The Venice delegation included Andrew S. Lee, president of the League of Municipalities to oppose annexation to Los Angeles, Robert L. Sheahan, Secretary of the League, and Mrs. Mina W. Lee.

Culver City was represented by Harry Culver.

Atty. Pearce Made Chairman

The meeting was called to order by Judge F. H. Lowe and, on motion, seconded and carried, Attorney Albert D. Pearce was made temporary chairman of the proposed organization and assumed the chair. D. Ripley Jackson was made temporary secretary and, on motion, seconded and carried, the chairman appointed a committee to draft by-laws and rules to govern the association, consisting of A. T. Cowan, Mattison B. Jones, Charles L. Chandler, Judge Lowe and W. B. Kirk.

Los Angeles Doesn't Play Fair

Most of the addresses of the evening were made by visiting delegates from territory which has been annexed to Los Angeles or which is struggling to avoid annexation. They explained that they had no quarrel with Los Angeles per se, that they were proud of her queenly position among the cities of America and if her annexations were made under a borough system which would permit self-government in local affairs, they would be proud to be a part of such a city. In other words, if she would play fair they would be glad to join her, but they showed that in every instance annexation had been effected against the will of the majority of the people affected, that propagandists who were paid out of a secret slush fund had worked to deceive the people by fraud and misrepresentation and by promising things the City of Los Angeles had no power to grant, even if it had the disposition, such as lower rates for public utilities, matters which are dictated by the Railroad Commission and which Los Angeles has no power to fix. They showed that the annexation committees harrassed them with election after election obscurely advertised and that the opponents of annexation had to be constantly on the alert to avoid having the thing "put over" without their knowledge, and that local propagandists were secured by the promise of Los Angeles jobs. They showed the indifference of the Los Angeles city government to these territories after they were once annexed and its failure to live up to any of the promises made. For these reasons the League of Municipalities was organized to combat the grabbing of territory and to test the legality of the elections under which some of the annexed districts were acquired. Sawtelle is eager to get out and her case and that of Culver City has been taken into the courts by the league and will be carried, if necessary, to the highest tribunal.

Organization to Place Facts Before People

Chairman Pearce explained that "a situation has arisen which appears to make it necessary to oppose the very active and very determined and in some respects very laudable effort of our big neighboring city to extend its boundaries and absorb this little community of ours." He declared: "It is the purpose of this organization to be so perfected as to be able to place before the people of Glendale the facts and also the history of various territories where annexation has been successfully consummated by the very active work of the Los Angeles population-increasing committee.

"I am not informed that a petition has been placed in circulation, but a movement has started that is apt to develop into a real campaign which we will need to combat in order to maintain the civic entity of Glendale."

Harry Culver Describes Situation in Culver City

The chair then called upon A. T. Cowan to express his sentiments on annexation to Los Angeles, and in response Mr. Cowan protested against taking up time when there are those present from outside who can tell us what has happened to them."

Acting on Mr. Cowan's suggestion, the chairman then called upon Harry Culver, of Culver City, who said in part:

"Four years ago the western part of Los Angeles, consisting of the Crenshaw, Lafayette, Culver City and Palms Districts, was all in the county. Today all of it is in Los Angeles with the exception of about one-half of Culver City.

"When you are called upon to surrender your civic identity, your primal rights and privileges, think twice before you do so. When you are called upon by somebody else to turn over your self-government, think twice before you do so. When your neighbor comes to you and says: 'I am in trouble. My property is mortgaged and I haven't sufficient funds to pay the interest. Let me take your property. You deed it to me and let me mortgage it and use the funds, and I will do thus and so for you,' think twice before you do it.

"We went into Los Angeles four years ago. The little town of Culver City, with 150 voters, voted unanimously 'No,' but we lost our identity, our government and everything else because the others outvoted us. We were beaten by seven votes and taken in after two fights."

Taxes Increase 900 Per Cent.

He then told of the savings promised them which have never materialized, how they were told there would be a saving on electric lights of $9.00 per year (they are higher now than before), a saving on water of $9.00, gas $18, telephone $18.00, carfare $48.00, insurance $13.00, making a total of $115.00. To show what they got he exhibited a tax receipt for 1913 on a vacant Culver City lot for $1.82. On the same lot, still unimproved, he was taxed by Los Angeles in 1918-19, $17.06, or an increase of 900 per cent. for the privilege of living in a strip called Los Angeles.

$20,000 for Police Protection

He admitted that Los Angeles did not repudiate all her promises, for instance, police protection; for Culver City can boast the distinction of having the highest-salaried policeman in the world. It has just one, for which the district pays $20,000. The Culver City Bank has been twice robbed, but Los Angeles police did not visit it. They did not know where Culver City was or what relation it bore to Los Angeles.

Purpose of League

Mr. Sheahan, of Venice, secretary of the Anti-Annexation League, who was next introduced, said:

"We who are associated in the Anti-Annexation League appreciate the opportunity of appearing before you and helping if we can, to tell you just what there is to this annexation proceeding of Los Angeles from the experience we have had."

He then gave a history of the Anti-Annexation League which was formed "when the directors of the Chamber of Commerce of Venice discovered last year that the independence and self-government of Venice was in jeopardy from that child of high-binding politics known as 'the annexation and consolidation commission of Los Angeles' which until a year ago worked without authority, according to the statement of the ex-Mayor of Los Angeles and for whom an ordinance was passed giving it a slush fund for which the committee does not have to make account for a single penny. We thought that by starting a propaganda campaign we could interest enough of our sister cities to join us to make a formidable front. As an outcome of that thought a little pamphlet was issued by the Chamber of Commerce calling upon citizens to rally to preserve our liberty and independence. It stirred up quite a feeling in a number of communities and as a result a meeting was held in St. Mark's Hotel, Venice, March 15th, at which eleven communities were represented. The work of the league was talked about in a general way and before the meeting closed we had the assurance of organized bodies in the various communities that they would do their utmost to induce the residents of their various cities to pay attention to the annexation program of Los Angeles City. A second meeting was held March 25th and at the present time we have sixteen communities affiliated with us representing a population of approximately 35,000 people, and the one grand idea, the point on which every member of the league is to concentrate is, how to devise ways and means of keeping out of Los Angeles. (Applause).

Santa Monica Refuses to Assume Indebtedness

"We started out with the idea of helping each other in the way of educating our people in regard to the dangers that lie in annexation to Los Angeles through believing in any of the promises made. Before we had fairly started, our sister community, Sawtelle, which had been taken in through these misrepresentations, applied for admission to the league, stating they would like very much to join it and have the weight of the league put behind their arguments of protest. As a result of taking in Sawtelle the league has engaged an attorney to take this Sawtelle case into the courts, on the contention that the act under which Los Angeles has made these annexations is unconstitutional from the fact that the constitution specifically states that no community can assume obligations except upon a two-thirds vote. When you annex you assume your proportionate share of Los Angeles' indebtedness although they fail to put that statement on your ballot when you vote. Under the law an unincorporated district must accept the ballot furnished it by the larger district. In incorporated territory the city attorney has the right to prepare the ballot. When the election was held in Santa Monica the ballot read: 'Shall we go into Los Angeles and assume our proportion of the $35,800,000 bonded indebtedness of the City of Los Angeles?' and Santa Monica said 'No.'

Sawtelle Case in Courts

"If we are going to fight, we must fight the best we know how and with the best weapons. We are fighting an organization that has no morals so far as politics is concerned. The Sawtelle case is going to the Supreme Court, the Culver City case will be taken into the courts, and every similar case is going into the courts."

Business Men's Licenses Increased

Mr. Sheahan then warned in regard to vocational licenses or the licenses under which business men of Glendale would operate should the city be annexed, and read from two lists furnished him by a resident of San Pedro which showed that a dealer in second-hand furniture who paid a $6 license there before annexation now is required to pay $10 a quarter or $40 a year, an undertaker who paid $6 now pays $60, a bootblack who paid $4 now pays $12.

Taxes Increased in Annexed Territory

The speaker then referred to taxes in that territory, saying that figures in his office showed that previous to annexation the tax rate in the districts annexed during the seven years previous to annexation had averaged $2.95 while for the fiscal year of 1917-18 it averaged $3.03 and the tax statement contained a provision that on account of the high cost of material and the high cost of labor and all the other high costs they would have to add 34c and make the tax rate $3.37, although a Los Angeles official told Mr. Sheahan that for the past two years they had been using only half of the appropriation for the improvement work referred to. He stated that when an investigation was made in that part of the San Fernando Valley taken into Los Angeles, which comprised approximately 60,000 acres, it was found that the increase in taxes averaged 300 per cent., that the tax rate of the City of San Fernando is $2.65, while across the street in the part absorbed by Los Angeles the rate is $4.95. "That," he declared, "shows how much reduction of taxes may be expected by communities when they annex."

In closing, he said: "There is no man and no organization connected with the 'Anti-Annexation League' that has a thing against Los Angeles or that does not want her to succeed, but no self-governing city wants to surrender its right to self-government or to be subservient to a bunch of crooked politicians." (Applause).

Legislative Injustice

The next speaker was Judge Savage, of San Pedro, who announced that in spite of his eighty-two years he was in the fight to the finish. He

TRUSTEES' MEETING

W. E. HEWITT, F. H. VESPER AND J. A. NEWTON PRESENT ELECTRIC SIGN TO CITY

The Board assembled at 8:10 p. m., Thursday, July 17th. All members present. Minutes of the regular meeting of July 10, 1919, were read and approved.

A committee of business men, consisting of W. E. Hewitt, F. H. Vesper and Jas. A. Newton, appeared before the Board and made a proposition, by Mr. Hewitt, to the effect that they have prepared to erect an electric sign at the eastern extremity of Broadway at the Glendale city limits, they proposing to furnish the sign free of expense to the city, the city to erect and maintain the same. On motion of Trustee Henry, the offer was accepted.

Traffic Signs

A communication was read from the Automobile Club of Southern California, calling attention to the fact that under a late amendment to the California Vehicle Act, it is the duty of cities to erect "speed warning" signs at the entrances of the business districts. The communication proposed that the Automobile Club will erect and prepare these signs free of charge at certain locations designated on a contract accompanying the communication, the city to pay for the maintenance of the same. Communication was referred to the city attorney. Later, the city attorney reported having examined the contract and recommended that the same be entered into by the city and signed by the proper officials. On motion, the recommendation of the city attorney was adopted.

Petitions for Opening of Maryland Avenue

A petition was presented by A. T. Tuttle and a number of other property owners interested, requesting that the trustees take the necessary proceedings for the opening and extension of Maryland avenue through Lot 180, Lomita Park Tract, to Maple street. On motion of Trustee Shaw, the city engineer was instructed to prepare the proceedings for the opening of Maryland avenue, as requested in the petition, and further that he prepare a map showing the territory of the assessment district that will be formed to pay for the necessary proceedings.

In accordance with the motion adopted at the last regular meeting, the hearing of the application of J. J. Jeffries for permit to operate motor truck over the streets of the city was taken up at this time. No one being present to represent the applicant, no action was taken.

P. Rosenfeld appeared before the Board and made a request that the be permitted to obtain a license for junk business in the city of Glendale, the license held by him previously having been revoked by the Board of Trustees. The chairman stated that the application would be considered by the board, and no further action was taken.

A communication was read from the city attorney in regard to the matter of rebate of the sum of one hundred dollars requested by the Crown Laundry Company on account of that sum having been paid to the city under the requirements of an ordinance which had afterwards been declared invalid by the court. The opinion of the city attorney was to the effect that this is not a legal claim against the city, and advised the board that payment of the same either in cash or by crediting the Crown Laundry Company on account of a license, would not be authorized by law. No action was taken.

City Manager

The city manager made a report in regard to the application of C. C. Gingery for permit to operate a motor bus, recommending that the same be granted for a limited period. On motion of Trustee Henry, the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Cesspools in Verdugo Canyon

The city manager presented to the board a number of applications for permission to construct cesspools on lots located in Tract No. 2292. On motion, it was ordered that the applications for permits to construct cesspools on Tract No. 2292 be denied.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the Superintendent of Buildings, and the Police Department of the city, were instructed to see that all the requirements provided for by ordinance for the construction of cesspools in Verdugo Canyon be observed.

The city clerk reported the receipt of $1.88 from the General Pipe Line Company of California on account of franchise granted to F. E. Fitzpatrick through Ordinance No. 165 of the city of Tropico. On motion of

MISSION BEACH

TENT CITY ON "FALSE BAY" NEAR SAN DIEGO ENJOYED BY BLAKE FRANKLINS

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin and family of 398 West Wilson avenue returned Wednesday night from a delightful beach trip to San Diego and vicinity. They had expected to put in a week at Coronado Beach, but on arriving there found that no reservations were to be had for a month so they turned their auto's nose to the north and went to the new tent city at Mission Beach, which is between La Jolla and San Diego and not far from Ocean Beach. Mrs. Franklin is very enthusiastic about it and says it is one of the finest beaches for swimming she ever saw and one of the prettiest on the coast. It is on Mission Bay or what is sometimes called "False Bay" because the early mission fathers were deceived by it and thought they had located San Diego Bay. Their house guest, Mrs. Watson, accompanied them and was not quite ready to come away when they did, so they left here there. She will return to Glendale next week.

Monday the party put in an entire day at sight seeing, and visited the exposition grounds, Point Loma, Fort Rosecrans, the Cliff Gardens, and followed the Silver Strand to Coronado. They made no attempt to enter Mexico.

Mr. Franklin leaves today (Friday) with a party of six associates in the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company for the High Sierras and has a wonderful trip in prospect. He will probably have adventures to relate when he gets home.

APPRECIATES HOME CLIMATE

Back in Glendale after a week spent in the Yosemite National Park, Charles H. Hamilton thinks his future summer travel will be in the direction of the beaches. In going to the Park one night was passed at El Capitan Hotel in Merced and in returning one night at the Sequoia in Fresno. The mercury hovered around 105 degrees and the heat in those places reminded him of his dear old home in Missouri, the remembrance of which is pleasanter than the experience. He thinks it regretable that this beautiful Yosemite Park is not located in our Southland and more easily accessible. But this is perhaps asking too much and after a pilgrimage out of this land of heart's desire he says one returns with a refreshed enthusiasm for our all summer and winter climate.

MERLE ECKLES HOME

Dr. J. E. Eckles and wife received a letter from their son, Merle, written en route to San Francisco from New York, where he landed early in July, stating that he hoped to be home by next Sunday. He had enjoyed the celebrations of the Fourth at Coney Island, where particular honors were paid the returned A. E. F. boys, but he longed for his California home. Dr. and Mrs. Eckles were looking forward, then, very longingly, to Sunday next when suddenly, this morning, Merle surprised them by strolling in. He succeeded in getting his discharge immediately after landing at the Presidio, then hastened home at once.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1919

ANTI-ANNEXATION MEETING

was given quite an ovation of applause.

The judge reviewed the special legislation under which Los Angeles had been able to accomplish its annexations, saying that in 1906 at the time of the earthquake when Governor Pardee convened an extraordinary session of the legislature, a bill went from Los Angeles providing for annexation of territory, especially San Pedro. The bill provided that a majority vote in Los Angeles was sufficient to annex San Pedro. Then John W. Mitchell was sent to the legislature and presented a bill providing for a harbor commission which ignored the city fronting the harbor. It went through in 1907 when a bill was introduced providing for the annexation of San Pedro. The judge was then a member of the senate and was aroused by the injustice and unfair dealing and felt it his duty to do what he could to protect his own interests and the interests of other residents of San Pedro.

Said he: "I said to them if you will give us a two-thirds vote on that proposition I will not oppose your desire, but they would not. They wanted annexation to take place by majority vote. I defeated them that year, but in 1909 they introduced another bill and we lost. Never in the history of a country has a harbor been reduced in size except the harbor of San Pedro where they have been filling in and creating land which has been leased at nominal figures to corporations. They have complete control of the water front and can order improvements for which the property owners of San Pedro have to pay. Ten days before the annexation of San Pedro, Los Angeles, without warrant of law, appropriated $10,000 for the purpose of purchasing votes in the cities of San Pedro and Wilmington. Two men each received $1000 apiece. Forty men were promised appointments. They promised a reduction of railroad fares which they had the power to effect at that time. They promised reduction in gas, electric light and water rates, but today our gas rates are higher, and the promises have not been kept.

"I want to say to you people, and I am speaking from an experience of 82 years, that you will rue the day as long as you live should you become part and parcel of the City of Los Angeles. Tax valuations in San Pedro are now higher than in Los Angeles. Look to your own interests. Do not listen to the glib talk of the politicians of Los Angeles who are working for their own individual interests and who do not care the snap of a finger for you."

Sawtelle's Experience

Charles Coe, of Sawtelle, then addressed the meeting, saying: "You people who own property in this town and take pride in it, think not twice but four times before you go into Los Angeles. The very foundation of our American liberties depends upon the exercise of his privileges of every American citizen. If you go into Los Angeles your vote is nothing. You do not have a look-in. They stole our town by three votes. Those votes were absolutely illegal. We have the affidavits to show that seven were illiterate and could not vote themselves, that the judge of election took them into a booth without a witness, voted them and made no record, not so much as the scratch of a pen. We have taken the matter into court and have had an appeal filed with the Appellate Court."

Mr. Coe then told the story which has already been published in the Evening News of how Mayor Woodman demanded the books and moneys of the City of Sawtelle, and was denied them until the courts should have ruled on the matter and how on February 8th between 7 and 8 in the morning before the business district was awake, the City Attorney of Los Angeles with a body of policemen came to Sawtelle and surrounded the Sawtelle City Hall, broke in and took possession of all records found there and carried away the safe which was drilled open after being taken to Los Angeles and the $136.14 which it contained transferred to the funds of Los Angeles. The funds of Sawtelle amounting to between $8000 and $9,000, which had been deposited by the Sawtelle treasurer, Mr. Head, in a bank subject to an order from the courts, the Los Angeles city government has not been able to get hold of.

At the suggestion of Mr. Sheahan, John A. Betten, of West San Pedro, was called to the platform and explained the struggles which his unincorporated territory had been compelled to make to avoid being taken into Los Angeles and forced to exchange its good artesian water for the much less desirable Owens River product. He explained that while they are still unannexed they are served by a water system controlled by Los Angeles and whenever an annexation campaign is on that service is so manipulated that there is a shortage of water which is made the basis of propaganda. He told of fearful waste of Los Angeles funds which had fallen under his observation and of reservoirs which were built by the engineering department of Los Angeles and which leak 50,000 gallons of water per day, which they undertook to collect by surrounding the reservoir with pipes to pick up the water and run it into a sump hole and then pump it from the sump hole back into the reservoir. He declared that when defeated at one election another campaign is immediately started, the notices of election being posted in obscure places so the voters have to be constantly on the alert to avoid being caught napping. He told of the efforts made during the war to trade on their patriotism by representing that Fort McArthur was in need of water which West San Pedro should undertake to supply by joining Los Angeles and assuming the bonded indebtedness necessary to provide water for the fort. The opponents of the proposition were charged with disloyalty and voters were challenged not to be slackers. Correspondence with the War Department showed that the government had nothing to do with the movement and that the fort had an adequate water supply. The speaker frankly charged fraud and deceit on the part of the Los Angeles Annexation Committee and its agents, saying: "One of the main reasons for which this Anti-Annexation League was formed was to fight fraud. If Los Angeles would come to you and state honestly and openly what she could do and would do for you if annexed, there would be no argument. You would never vote to go in. We are prepared to back every statement we make."

He explained that the Board which served at the polling place at the last election consisted of three women who had never served in that capacity before and were absolutely ignorant of what they were doing, that acting on the instructions they had received they challenged the votes of electors known to be opposed to annexation and required them to produce their registration certificates closing the polls before they returned with the certificates ten minutes before the closing time provided in the election notices.

James Neill Makes Eloquent Plea

Two local speakers were then heard, James Neill of Lomita avenue being the first. His plea was that the majority of the residents of Glendale had come here because they were "small town people" who wanted a chance to have something to say about the civic affairs of the community in which they lived, had they been satisfied with the Los Angeles government they would have located there or remained there instead of coming to Glendale. He declared it was neither right nor fair to draw such residents into Los Angeles against their will, and apart from economic considerations, after the revelations which had been made of the calamity which would overtake the city if foolish enough to annex to Los Angeles, there should be united effort to avoid it. "The moment we go into Los Angeles," he declared, "we become the last hair on the last long-tailed dog. We are being beguiled by sirens who tell us of the wonder and supremacy of Los Angeles, but we know the promises are bunk. Why do they want us? They want us to build their harbor and the municipal ferries and the lamps on Broadway which are to cost $900 apiece. Some day we will have our own gas plant, and perhaps a telephone system. We do not want a yellow car that takes an hour and a half to make the trip and stops at every corner. We want to keep our identity. I hope, gentlemen, you will not go to sleep at the switch. I firmly believe there should be an amendment to our city charter whereby only the man who owns property should be authorized to vote on questions of this kind. (Applause). Fight it. Make it a house to house campaign and you will beat them so they will never raise their heads again."

Keep Our Fundamental Rights, Says Mattison B. Jones

Mattison B. Jones, who was the last speaker, reinforced the points made by Mr. Neill but wanted it should be made clear that there is no antagonism against Los Angeles as a city, but simply a struggle to keep the inherent rights of citizenship. "I am opposing this," he said, "because they want to take from me my fundamental, constitutional right to help bring about the local improvements that I think ought to be made and at first hand. I have said ever since I came into the community nine years ago that if Los Angeles would adopt the borough system and show her good faith to the communities she invites to annex, by giving them an opportunity for self-government, I would be in favor of the borough of Glendale, but so long as it is unwilling to give a respectable community like Glendale an opportunity to carry on its own business in its own way, it shows a disposition of unfairness of which I do not want to be a part. I think our slogan should be 'Pro Glendale,' and I am not going into this campaign to abuse Los Angeles."

Before adjournment, on motion of Mr. Cowan, a rising vote of thanks was tendered the visitors from Culver City, Sawtelle, Venice and West San Pedro for their public spirit in coming so far to attend the meeting.

Personals

Miss Virginia Huntley is visiting in Hermosa Beach this week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fell and their daughter, Bettie.

Mrs. Roscoe Puffer of Vine street is today (Friday) attending a luncheon in Pasadena, given by Mrs. Chas. Sutter in honor of Miss Maude Back, of Chicago, Ill. All three of the ladies were girlhood friends.

Brahm Vanden Berg, the great musician, whose home is at the junction of Kenwood and Doran street, is filling an engagement at the Orpheum in Los Angeles this week. He is a drawing card and many Glendale people have been in to hear him play.

R. M. Jackson has opened a real estate office at 205 East Broadway in the store occupied by Mr. Peck, the jeweler. On account of illness Mr. Jackson retired from business about two years ago. He is glad to resume it and says he has excellent prospects.

Mrs. Opal Greenwalt of 408 Oak street entertained as luncheon guests Thursday, Rev. Charles Hutstar and family, of Palo Alto, and Mrs. Eva Hutton, of Glendale, who has been a friend of the Hutstars for many years. The clergyman is pastor of the Christian Church at Palo Alto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin of 246 North Central avenue Thursday morning were made very happy by the arrival of their daughters, Miss Veta Franklin and Mrs. Franklin Head, and two little daughters, Nancy Blake and Mary Wirt, from Ardmore, Oklahoma. Their train was twelve hours' late and was forced by washouts to make a detour of 600 miles. Miss Franklin has been away for a year and has returned to stay. Mrs. Head and her children will spend the summer here.

PICNIC PARK AT LA CRESCENTA

The Glendale-Montrose Railway Company is building a picnic park at La Crescenta on a ten-acre tract on which they have been working for about a month. It will be completed in about two weeks, and will be fitted with fountains, swings, tennis courts, parking stations for automobiles, lunching places and fireplaces, and a swimming pool is promised for next year.

MR. YAGER TAKES PARTNER

T. E. Yager, proprietor of the cafe and candy store at 111 South Brand boulevard is introducing to the public J. A. Pope, who has purchased a half interest in the business. They are making great plans and propose to enlarge every department.

EVANGELIST NICHOLSON TONIGHT

This evening, at 7:45, at the Presbyterian Church, corner Broadway and Cedar street, Rev. Wm. P. Nicholson, the noted evangelist, will speak. This is known as "Family Night" and it is expected that a large number, both young and old, will hear this most interesting speaker. Dr. Nicholson has had a most wonderful career. As a boy he ran away from home and for a number of years followed the life of a sailor. He yielded to strong drink and became a low-down, worthless drunkard. He was converted in his own home, and since that time has accomplished much good in the evangelistic field.

For some years he was associated with the late J. Wilbur Chapman, and in later years has been at the head of a special evangelistic party, which has carried on meetings in different parts of the world. Recently he has conducted services in the Bible Institute, Los Angeles, and other parts of the state. It is not often a man of so great prominence speaks in our city. He preaches the whole gospel in his own unique way. Being a thorough-going Irish Presbyterian it is expected that he will emphasize the great fundamentals of the Christian religion. He certainly does it in a way that's different. The general public is cordially invited. No collection. Come and bring your friends. Tonight, 7:45.

After Supper—What?

Most of your time is mortgaged to work, meals, and sleep. But the hours after supper are yours, and your whole future depends on how you spend them. You can fritter them away on profitless pleasure, or you can make these hours bring you position, money, power, real success in life.

There's a big job waiting for you—in your present work, or any line you choose. Get ready for it! You can do it without losing a minute from work, or a wink of sleep, without hurrying a single meal, and with plenty of time left for recreation. You can do it in one hour after supper each night, right at home, through the

International Correspondence Schools

Hundreds of thousands have proved it. The designer of the Packard "Twin-Six" and hundreds of other Engineers climbed to success through I.C.S. help. The builder of the great Equitable Building, and hundreds of Architects and Contractors won their way to the top through I.C.S. spare-time study. Many of this country's foremost Advertising and Sales Managers prepared for their present positions in spare hours under I.C.S. Instruction.

For 28 years men in offices, stores, shops, factories, mines, railroads, in the Army and Navy—in every line of technical and commercial work—have been winning promotion and increased salaries through the I.C.S. Over 100,000 men are getting ready right now in the I.C.S. way for the bigger jobs ahead.

Your Chance Is Here

No matter where you live, the I.C.S. will come to you. No matter what your handicaps, or how small your means, we have a plan to meet your circumstances. No matter how limited your previous education, the simply written, wonderfully illustrated I.C.S. textbooks make it easy to learn. No matter what career you may choose, some one of the 280 I.C.S. Courses will surely suit your needs.

Make Your Start Now!

When everything has been made easy for you—when one hour a day spent with the I.C.S. in the quiet of your own home will bring you a bigger success, more comforts, more pleasures, all that success means—can you afford to let another single priceless hour of spare time go to waste? Make your start right now! This is all we ask: Without cost, without obligating yourself in any way, put it up to us to prove how we can help you. Just mark and mail this coupon

Trustee Shaw, the same was referred to the city manager for verification.

City Attorney

The city attorney reported that the Title Company would furnish a list of property owners included in the assessment district to be taken for the opening of Orange street, for fifteen dollars. It was ordered that the list be obtained at the figure named.

The city attorney reported that the cases brought by Miss Marr against the city of Glendale had been decided in favor of the city.

In regard to rebates to be made to certain property owners in recently annexed districts on account of double assessments, the city attorney reported that he had conferred with the county auditor in regard to the matter, and that the valuation and other necessary data would be furnished by the county to the city of Glendale within a few days, when the matter can be taken up again and covered by ordinance.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that the contract between the city of Glendale and W. S. Althouse for special engineering services be entered into and executed by the proper officials.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the city engineer was instructed to prepare the proceedings for the improvement of Sycamore Canyon Road in accordance with plans and specifications submitted by the city engineer providing for 5-in. concrete base, oiled screening surface, etc., and that the proceedings include the extension of the work of improvement southward to a connection with the existing wash, provided deeds can be secured for the necessary property.

Trustee Woodberry, while voting in the affirmative, desired to be put on record as preferring a concrete base one-half inch less in thickness than that proposed.

LA CANADA

The La Canada Thursday Club held its annual picnic supper, for members and their families, Wednesday, July 16th, at the home of Mrs. Wesley Selleck, president of the club. Tables were spread under a vine-clad pergola and in the spacious patio adjoining, and covers were laid for about sixty. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the presence of many former members of the club who came from a distance. The meeting closed a very delightful year of club work, and the organization adjourned to resume meetings in October when new officers will be installed for the ensuing year. After supper an impromptu program was given which was much enjoyed. The numbers consisted of:

(1)—Piano solos: (a) Silvery Waves, (b) Humoresque, by Miss Harriet Seright.

(2)—Readings: (a) Humorous Press Clipping, (b) "Bill Stubbs," (c) "Pore Li'l Brack Sheep," by Wesley Selleck.

(3)—Readings: (a) "When the Chinese Soldier Goes to War," (b) "Barbara Fritchie," John Evans.

(4)—Humorous anecdotes by Rev. Selwyn Evans.

(5)—Reminiscences by Dr. D. W. Scott.

(6)—"America," sung by the club, with Miss Robinson at the piano.

Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames A. P. Anderson, Max Green, W. F. Holden, H. D. Horn, N. A. Maynard, R. B. Waterman, C. F. Pate, W. H. Seright, Wesley Selleck, F. H. Grainger, T. H.
